

Crafters and artisans invited to Jubilee

Visitors to the 2013 Tehama County Museum Annual Jubilee enjoyed strolling through all of the artisans and crafters booths in Habert Park just west of the Museum.

Crafters and collectors, artisans and marketers whose interests and products run the gamut from the interesting and unique to the practical and hard to find are invited to set up shop at the Tehama County Museum's 33rd Annual Jubilee on Saturday, September 6th in beautiful downtown Tehama.

The large number of tents and sun shades that fill Habert Park next to the Museum are a very important feature of the Jubilee. They always entice locals and visitors alike to stop and enjoy the festivities. TCM Event Coordinator Pam Britting pointed out that, "Because this event is our major fund raiser of the year, we work hard to offer a wide variety of opportunities for people who want to support the Museum and have a good time all at the same time. There is a wonderful symbiotic relationship between the crafters, and artisans and the Museum. People who come to shop at the faire also stroll over to the Museum and we get to tell them the Tehama County story. People who come to have breakfast or lunch and enjoy our exhibits, our entertainment and special attractions are drawn to venture over to the booths and see what's for sale - maybe even do some early Christmas shopping because these days it's never too early to think about that. Crafters and artisans who would like to join in this opportunity are invited to contact us by phone at 384-2595; by e-mail at tcmuse@tehama.net; or to check our web site at www.tehamacountymuseum.org for details prior to the August 27th deadline."

The Museum is located at 275 C Street in the City of Tehama and is open to visitors on Saturdays and Sundays from 1-4p.m.
